1	Narrator: Summit Educational Resources is a private, not-for-profit organization approved by the New York State Education Department, Department of Health, and Office of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities to provide educational and therapeutic services to children with learning, communication, and behavioral challenges. Summit serves hundreds of children with speech and language delays, autism, hearing impairment, and other developmental disabilities from infancy through age twenty-one. Our students are from Erie, Niagara, Genesee, and Wyoming counties and more than thirty different school districts. Summit provides comprehensive coverage for children with disabilities from birth to twenty-one years.	Title: Summit Educational Resources – Overview We see the exterior of Summit and its satellites. Dissolve to the classrooms. We see teachers and therapists working with the kids. Throughout this video, the Summit logo – the peak – fades in. At first it is opaque. Gradually it gains color and shape. By the end of the narrator’s bit, it is up full. The logo is accompanied by the tagline: “Developing Individual Potential, Reaching for the Future”
2	After a few seconds, we hear the voice of a staff member briefly summarizing what Summit is all about and how long they’ve been doing this work. Narrator: Every day, we at Summit Educational Resources strive to help children learn new skills and expand their educational and communicational horizons. Summit itself has followed a similar path. We have come a long way	Title: History of Summit We see a montage of teachers/therapists interacting with students in various locations at Summit. Dissolve to the staff members in their professional setting. Dissolve to stills of Summit today. Wide shot of timeline. Camera zooms in close and begins
